

Freddy Ehlers

Appointed Secretary General of Andean Community of Nations, Lima, Peru

Sino Union Group and Peace Media representatives: Mr Felix Chen(Far Left), Mr Sunny Kuo(2nd from right) with Mr Freddy Ehlers at the Andean Community commencement ceremony.

Freddy Ehlers Zurita, famous in the media circle of Ecuador, a committed politician striving for the benefit of the Andean Community, had been voted unanimously as the Secretary General of the Andean Community of Nations (CAN). He was sworn in officially on Feb 22, 2007 at Lima, Peru.

Peace Media representatives, Mr. Felix Chen and Mr. Sunny Kuo were cordially invited to attend this historical event. This ceremony was also attended by various officials and members of the Andean Community, close friends of Mr. Freddy and members of the press covering the event.

Freddy Ehlers Zurita

Born in Quito, he graduated from the Central University of Ecuador majoring in Law. His career life is connected with the integration process of CAN.

He was elected as the Andean Parliamentarian member of the Second Commission by the Ecuadorian people in a national vote, in charge of education, culture, science, technology and communication. He also directed the famous TV program “La Television”, producing and directing more than 5,000 documentaries.

ANDEAN COMMUNITY OF NATIONS

The Andean Community of Nations (CAN) was established in 1969, with Bolivia, Columbia, Ecuador and Peru as its country members; Chile, Argentina, Brazil, Paraguay and Uruguay are associate members; while Mexico and Panama are its observer countries. CAN's main objectives are to promote the Member countries' harmonious development under equitable conditions through integration and economic and social development and to develop international trade ties, as well as promote the cultural exchange with the EU, China and other private trade organizations.